ALL INDIA LAW ENTRANCE TEST (AILET) 2020

INFORMATION TO CANDIDATES

As the Admission Portal is now active, we also find certain grievances of candidates relating to:

1. Non-Availability of Centres
2. Mismatch of Date of Birth in Admit Card
3. Other kind of grievances related to AILET 2020

We wish to apprise the candidates that our technical partner, National Testing Agency (NTA) is trying to fix all the above mentioned issues on priority. We will be able to resolve these issues very soon. However, we will not be able to provide Test Centres at all the places as requested by candidates but for certain exceptional cases, provisions will be made and NTA is looking into this matter.

We have tried our best in terms of providing as many as 111 Centres in 64 Cities in 22 States which is extremely diverse in terms of total number of applicants for AILET 2020. The team of NLU Delhi and NTA is further trying to address other concerns related to AILET 2020. We assure that we will be able to resolve these issues very soon.

The candidates are requested to kindly exercise restraint. The candidates are free to contact the Helpline Number of NTA (8287471852, 8178359845, 8882356803, 9650173668, 9599676953) from 9.30 am to 6 pm for further guidance.
